A wooden, freely accessible lookout tower stands on the top of Velký Roudný (780 m above sea level) and it is a national natural monument of volcanic origin. From the lookout tower, you will have views of the Hrubý Jeseník Mountains, the Nízký Jeseník Mountains, Oderské vrchy Hills, the Slezská Harta dam, Roudno and Bruntál.

The lookout tower can be reached by the shortest route from the village of Roudno (1.4 km on foot). You can also visit the side peak of Malý Roudný or take a walk along the local Po vulkanitech Nature Trail.
